April Meeting

The April 8 meeting of the Central Illinois Woodturners was held at the Woodcraft store in Peoria, IL. Thirteen members attended the meeting.

Show-N-Tell

Dave Harmer---hollow vessel; Dick Coers---thin walled bowl from osage burl; Harold Levin---hollow vessel from maple burl; Dave Bloom---bowls from tulip poplar, cherry and butternut; Toby Cunningham---skew grinding jig and a tool for holding and adjusting a diamond dresser.

April Demonstration

The April meeting was our hands on meeting with tool sharpening being the subject. The Woodcraft store also had a new lathe on the floor, a Nova DVR 3000. Dick gave us a demonstration of the lathe by turning a thin walled bowl on it.

May Meeting

The May meeting will be held at the Woodworker's Shop in Bloomington, IL at 7:00pm May 13.

May Program

Toby Cunningham will be the demonstrator at the May meeting. His demo will be turning tea lamps.

Woodturning Demonstration

Dick Coers will contact John Jordan to see if he would be able to give the club a demonstration this summer or fall.

Soren Berger

Soren Berger, from New Zealand, will demo in St. Louis on June 8. For more information contact Mario Vitale at (314) 423-8120 or e-mail: mariol.vitale@worldnet.att.net.

Turning at Wildlife Prairie Park

Wildlife Prairie Park will be having woodworking demonstrations on several weekends this summer. The dates for our club to turn are June 8 and 9. You may show and sell items at the park. This event will take the place of the June meeting.

Membership news

Paul Cobb joined the club at the April meeting. The Central Illinois Woodturners welcome him.
